

The Making of Angry Birds Epic

PocketGamer.biz: „Triple-A branding an indie game concept: the Making of Angry Birds Epic“

Dear friends, in case you have missed it: PocketGamer.biz has published a feature about the making of „Angry Birds Epic“. The epic Angry Birds mobile game, which was created and developed by our rcp family studio Chimera Entertainment in partnership with Rovio Entertainment, has recently reached 50 million downloads in total and is still counting...

Check out the feature over at PocketGamer.biz and read all about how the mobile game came into existence, the partnership between rcp, Chimera Entertainment and Rovio, as well as its different developing processes.
