Five new employees: remote control productions continues to rely on experience and expertise

Munich, May 20, 2016 – remote control productions keeps on growing: Wolfgang Stindl, Stefan Wehler and Jürgen Kayser bolster the production house in three core business areas.

As Senior Account Manager, experienced Portfolio Manager Wolfgang Stindl will support the teams of the developer family in terms of planning, controlling and executing their company goals. He was previously responsible for the market segment of computer games at the investment enterprise iVenture Capital.

Seasoned Marketing expert Stefan Wehler joins rcp's Brand team, filling the newly-created position of Product Manager. Wehler previously worked at Yahoo! Germany, where he was in charge of both B2B Marketing as well as Product Marketing for all apps and websites of the internet pioneer. Prior to that, he worked as Marketing Manager DACH at GameStop, where he collaborated with publishers from all over the videogame industry.

The Business Development department is also growing, as Jürgen Kayser joins the team from AR-specialist Metaio GmbH, where he was responsible for customer acquisition, key account management and creating AR concepts. In his role as Business Development Manager, Kayser will focus on rcp's gamification unit Gamify Now!.

Two additional new employees were already hired back in February to strengthen the Business Development and Account Management Departments: Volker Hirsch, Creative Consultant for all development teams and Stefan Kreutzer, Business Development Manager film/tv.

Hendrik Lesser, founder and CEO of remote control productions is pleased with the new additions to his team: „rcp has grown consistently over the last few years. Our new colleagues will make sure that we're able to support our teams better than ever before, true to our company slogan: 'make better games'. The bigger team is testament to our growth; we're now better than ever prepared for the future.”
